

THE HARDIE PRESS
proudly announces the publication of

Liszt Society Publications Volume 13

Cantico di San Francesco

The Complete Music for Trombone, with Pianoforte or Organ

Edited by Wataru Fukuda, General Editor: Leslie Howard

“We are very fortunate that Liszt counted the distinguished trombonist Eduard Grosse amongst his friends. The friendship resulted in three works for trombone and organ, the most important of which is also scored for trombone and piano: this 'Cantico di San Francesco' is a comprehensive reworking of an original religious vocal piece of a quite unusual blend of charm and ebullience, and it is a mystery why it has languished so long unpublished. It is a splendid addition to the very scant Romantic trombone repertoire.” Leslie Howard

Cantico di San Francesco (i) for (bass) trombone and pianoforte, S377c*; (ii) for (bass) trombone and organ, S677a*
Hosannah!- Choral for (bass) trombone and organ, S677

Aria: 'Cujus animam' aus dem Stabat Mater von G. Rossini for (tenor) trombone and organ, S679

*First publication

ISBN: 978-0-946868-42-1 ISMN M-708090-58-8 LS13 Price: £16.95 (postage extra)

Available through music shops or from the publisher:
The Hardie Press, 108 Harlawhill Gardens, Prestonpans EH32 9JH
t/f: 01875 815 456 e: admin@hardiepress.co.uk
w: www.hardiepress.co.uk